Matthew Clark

Welcome to our Autumn release of new wines to our range.

We are adding a further 70 #downtoearthwines to our market leading portfolio. Here you'll find wines with no added sulphites, a vast array of vegan friendly wines, more choice from Bordeaux and Burgundy, an exclusive white Priorat and innovative wines in a can.

These additions are a response to our ever-evolving market and meet the demands that our team of Wine Development Specialists have identified from our on-trade customers. We continue to develop our range to ensure our customers have the best choice of wines relevant to their business.

In this list we have included an RRP rather than a list price - we want to give you an idea of what the wines that have caught your eye could be priced as on your wine list. We have based it on a minimum of 65% gross profit margin except for those with a cost price (including VAT) over £20. In this case we have added a £25 cash margin as results show that this will help you sell more of the premium wines on your list. List prices are still available on our website and your Account Manager will be able to give you a discounted price on request.

In our 2019 /20 wine list we introduced more symbols to make it simpler to spot our sustainably produced, organic, vegetarian and vegan wines which you will also find in this list and as helpful search filters on our website.

We hope you find some interesting additions here and as always welcome your feedback as we constantly work to give our customers the best range to keep their customers coming back for more!

Wine Expression

The wines in The Matthew Clark Wine List have each been assigned a Wine Expression icon designed to help understand the style of any particular wine and may help when:

- Arranging lists by style rather than by region
- Recommending similar wines to consumers

All wines are different and some fit more naturally into a Wine Expression category than others. Where a wine could perhaps fall into more than one category we have selected the Wine Expression category into which the wine best fits.

Pommery

About the Range: Paul Vranken, a Belgian, purchased Champagne Pommery in 1976 and has continued to emulate the entrepreneurial and modern style that Madame Louise Pommery created in 1858. Today the champagnes are still created 30 metres underground in Reims in the ancient chalk pits that keep the wines at a steady 10 °C all year round and 85% humidity. Pommery Blanc de Blancs is the most recent style to be released following the global demand for this new 'en-vogue' Champagne cuvée

Persistent bubbles amidst pale gold, and gentle green hues, display that this is a wine with marked finesse. This is reinforced by fresh and elegant aromas of jasmine and acacia that lead to a depth of citrus fruits and frangipane. The palate articulates a generous wealth of lemon, grapefruit and green apple, all supported by a fine and tireless mousse.

Angel & Four

About the Range: Angel & Four is a start-up English wine business launched in 2019 with the aim of making sparkling wine from England, for everyone.

The business was started by FOUR people from the wine trade who felt passionate about English wine, but found it too expensive and inaccessible, and decided to rewrite the rule book. "Our mission is a challenging one, and we'll probably need some help from 'up above', perhaps from an ANGEL..."

Vineyards are situated in Gloucestershire and are protected by the Welsh Mountains, Cotswolds and Malverns. Grapes are hand-picked, pressed, and vinified in Gloucestershire, and base (still) wine is then transported to Sussex to be made sparkling by what is known as charmat-method secondary fermentation.

Buyer's Comment: One of the very first sparkling wines from England made by the charmat (Prosecco) method - Angel & Four is priced at a point which makes it accessible compared to Champagne-method wines normally produced in England. The label also rocks!

Sette Bello, Prosecco

Sette Bello Prosecco, Italy

This Prosecco DOC from Northern Italy, is a classic example of the Glera grape. With juicy peach and apricot aroma's, it has a fresh citrus palate with a touch of richness and a clean, lingering finish. Best enjoyed as an aperitif, with antipasti, or just with friends.

Vigneti Cenci

About the Range: These fantastic wines are truly artisan, from a tiny, family owned estate named Vigneti Cenci (pronounced chen-chi). Maurizio is the owner and winemaker, he took over from his grandfather and does pretty much everything, from winemaking to admin, answering emails, running visits and even doing some deliveries! Maurizio's grandfather wasn't originally from the area. He was injured during the Second World War and after he had recovered, he wanted to find his friends who had saved his life. This search led him to Franciacorta, where he stayed, buying the estate and bringing up his family. Production levels are tiny so Maurizio can keep a close eye on the whole production process. During our visit earlier this year he mentioned "everyone can do 95% of the job because it's easy, the 5% is hard. When you care about the small things (the 5%) you get the best"

Franciacorta "La Capinera" Brut, Vigneti Cenci

RRP: £45.50

Made in the traditional method, using 70% Chardonnay and 30% Pinot Bianco. The whole range is very low dosage (max 8g/ L). By using a higher proportion of Pinot Bianco than some producers you can achieve riper, more intense fruit flavours meaning you can use a lower dosage and still achieve well balanced wines.

This wine has flavours of citrus and peach with brioche notes.

Franciacorta "La Capinera" Rosé Brut, Vigneti Cenci

RRP: £48.00

This wine is 100% Pinot Noir which gives it a delicate salmon pink colour and a rounder, richer texture. The flavours are complex; honeysuckle, red berries with a zingy ripe lemon acidity.

Zuccardi

About the Range: "Familia Zuccardi was founded in 1963 by engineer Alberto Zuccardi, looking to shake up wine growing in the Mendoza region. 56 years later the winery and range remains in family hands, with Alberto's son José Alberto and now his grandson Sebastian heading up the winemaking team.

Named by Decanter as two out of the five most influential personalities in Argentinean wine, José Alberto and Sebastian are seen as pioneers in wine making.

The vineyard has been voted the best in Vineyard in the world at the inaugural awards ceremony in London. A factor in Zuccardi's success is the research and development in the winery that has been spearheaded by Sebastian. Dedicated to the study of the terroir and variables that affect wine making, as well as an experimental area where 35 different grape varieties are grown, allowing them to innovate with non-native grape varieties in a way that no one else can. From the first late harvest wine in Argentina, to fortified Malbec, to making Bonarda a key varietal, there is always something new and something to differentiate from other offerings in Argentina.

Zuccardi Serie A Torrontes, Salta

Vintage: 2018

RRP: £32.50

🍷 Intense yellow colour with silver hues. A delicate and intense nose, full of white flowers and citric fruits. Notes of orange peel and oregano. This wine is well structured and has lively acidity and very aromatic. A delicate but long finish.

Buyer's Comment: The Serie A "Argentina Series" was created by Zuccardi to show off the differences of soil and climates in the wine-making regions of Argentina. This Torrontes comes from Salta, a region in the far north of the country with both some of the lowest and highest vineyards in the world. A wide diurnal temperature variation (hot days, cool nights) in the region is ideal for the Torrontes grape, allowing for them to ripen well whilst retain good acidity.

Buyer's Comment: As wine designed to show off the very best that the nation's key grape variety can do in one of its key regions, this was a stand out when we tasted through the range. A really intense wine, with lively red fruit aromas that follow on to richer dried fruits, tobacco and black pepper. Really soft on the front-palate, velvety smooth, but backed up with firm tannins and flavours of chocolate, cherry and hints of spice.

Jose Zuccardi Malbec, Mendoza

🍷 Inky aromas of black fruits and balsamic vinegar. In the mouth, this Malbec is edgy and bouncy, with elastic tannins and high acidity. Plum and wild-berry flavors on the long and tight finish.

Buyer's Comment: Named after Sebastian's father, José, this is a truly personal wine to the Zuccardi family. Intense black colour with a complex nose of ripe red and black fruit with hints of spice. Firm and mature tannins give great structure, with bright acidity giving a freshness and elegance to the wine. A real talking point.

Zuccardi Fossil San Pablo Chardonnay, Uco Valley, Mendoza

JDE Code: 38477

Vintage: 2018

RRP: £62.00

🍷 Hand harvested grapes the first week of April following different type of soils. Fermented with indigenous yeasts in concrete vessels and without malolactic fermentation. Plenty of citrus aromas which follow through into the palate. A lovely, lean Chardonnay with plenty of freshness and a slight creaminess from the lees ageing.

Buyer's Comment: This is a brilliant, fresh, clean, and pure Chardonnay with fantastic minerality. Chardonnay has suffered over the years from being over-oaked, and it is great to find one that shows how lean and fresh it can be. Lovely citrus aromas that follow through onto the palate. Bright acidity and a pure, mineral finish.

Zuccardi Finca Piedra Infinita, Mendoza

JDE Code: 38476

Expression: 🍷

Vintage: 2015

RRP: £105.00

🍷 Deep red color with violet hues. It expresses a great fruit character with notes of cherry and blackberry. A wine of grand structure and acidity. Mineral with notes of wet stone and graphite. Long finish.

Buyer's Comment: As one of the key Zuccardi wines, this really shows what they can do with the research and development centre that they have created, identifying the very best plots and grapes.

Salentein

About the Range: Salentein is in the heart of Mendoza, with its vineyards located in the Uco Valley, one of its most premium and 'cool climate' sub regions.

A celebrated producer, Bodegas Salentein's name has become synonymous with quality and since 2010 has had José Galante at the helm. José is widely referred to as the father of modern winemaking in Argentina, having previously led wine production at Catena Zapata group.

His goal is to make exceptional wines while supporting the local people and community and encouraging biodiversity, and the evidence of this is clear from the abundance of awards that decorate Salentein's range.

Buyer's Comment: In the heart of the Mendoza, with its vineyards located in the Uco Valley, Bodegas Salentein has begun to transform wine making in Argentina. We originally tasted this wine for a single customer however, the quality was SO good we had to add it into our core range. It was one of the stand out wines at this 200 wine tasting.

It's toasty with ripe lemon and stone fruit flavours and a buttery richness.

Head and shoulders above many Chardonnay at the same price point, its intensity of fruit and concentration of flavour sets it apart. The balance, elegance and complexity are a result of extremely high altitude plantings. The grapes come from two vineyards, La Pampa, at 1,300m, and San Pablo, at 1,500m above sea level.

Aberdeen Wine Company

About the Range: After completing university, Hamish MacGowan moved to Australia's Northern Territory to muster cattle at remote stock camps. Hanging up his stockman boots, he began working for a small winery in Victoria - this formed the basis of his winemaking career and is why he's so fond of Central Victorian grapes. Not one to stand still, Hamish relocated to Europe. He worked for a leading UK wine merchant, then as a winemaker in Bordeaux, followed by his most challenging experience where he ran a winery in Moldova, part of the former Soviet Union. After a while, Australia beckoned again.

Back home he worked in Winemaker and Export Manager roles, but an idea was forming in his mind that he had to pursue – the idea to create the perfect wine to pair with beef.

In 2003 he began the Aberdeen Wine Company and the rest, as they say, is history.

Buyer's Comment: Red Meat's Perfect Partner. When it comes to winemaking, Hamish's philosophy is to make the absolute, hands-down perfect accompaniment for a prime piece of beef. Drawing upon his diverse winemaking background including several vintages working in Bordeaux. Each year Hamish hand selects premium parcels of Cabernet Sauvignon & Merlot grapes sourced from outstanding vineyard sites in Central Victoria to create his signature style. Producing full bodied wines that have been crafted for that satisfying moment when red wine meets red meat.

Elephant in the Room

About the Range: The Elephant in the Room wines are large in character and expansive in flavour. Created to give consumers exactly what they want – full bodied and mouth filling wines that deliver maximum pleasure. Each wine is sourced from cool climate, slow ripening vineyards and partially matured in French oak before canning. The Chardonnay is sourced from the coastal Robe wine region, and the Pinot Noir from an elevated site near Mount Gambier.

Buyer's Comment: Wine in cans has been huge in the USA (+58% in 2018) and Australia this summer, and is set to be huge in the UK next year as more product is launched.

Festival sites and premises with beer gardens are obvious venues where these single serves will work superbly.

We tried a large number of canned product and found Elephant in the Room to be of excellent quality.

Santa Rita

About the Range: Established in 1880 and based just outside Santiago, Santa Rita is one of Chile's oldest and most respected wineries. Santa Rita has a unique cultural and historical heritage and was awarded National Monument status for its cellars and park in 1972. Santa Rita owns over 3,200 hectares across the country's major wine valleys and grows over 30 different grape varieties. It has been recognized globally for its sustainability management both in terms of being environmentally friendly, socially equitable and economically viable across all winemaking practices.

Buyer's Comment: With the environmental impact of single use plastics dominating the news over the last few years and the increasing focus on sustainability, it was important for us to find an alternative solution to plastic serves.

Aluminium is the most recycled material on the planet and it is a considerably more efficient process compared to plastic. Cans are light and easy to transport which, means the carbon footprint is considerably below that of glass bottles.

We see cans as the best, eco alternative for single serves. They are also innovative and fun, appealing to a more relaxed wine consumer.

Terra Andina

About the Range: This range is all about lovely concentrated fruit flavours and to achieve this we needed to focus on finding the best vineyards possible. The grapes for these wines come from across Chile. Officially the labels state 'Central Valley' however, many of the grapes used come from Casablanca and Maipo and Colchagua, all renowned for their ability to produce some of Chile's finest wines.

Buyer's Comment: Just 14 miles from the coast and the cooling influences from the Pacific Ocean makes Casablanca the perfect location to grow Sauvignon and Chardonnay. Morning fogs and greater cloud cover result in a long ripening period which, means the grapes have longer to develop greater flavour and complexity.

Maipo is often described as the "Bordeaux of South America", here Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot thrive.

In Colchagua, grapes are sourced from the premium sub region of Apalta, home to many of the greatest red wines from Chile.

Terroir et Talents

About the Range: These are natural wines produced by Château de la Terrière. The Château de la Terrière has stood in Cercié since the 14th century, in the heart of the Beaujolais and is one of the oldest estates in the region.

Buyer's Comment: The ethos for these wines was to produce something natural, wild, and pure. A true expression of Gamay and the region, with no added sulphites, from vinification to bottling. The grapes for Vin Sauvage are sourced from a tiny plot of very old vines (over 100 years old) within the appellation Régnié. The grapes from Vin Nature a Butiner have been sourced from the best parcels of old vines (average 50 years) planted across the Beaujolais region. Predominantly from the hillsides near the villages of Lantignié and Régnié.

RRP: £39.00

A fruity and mineral wine, with a charming nose of violets and black fruits. Well integrated tannins and superb length with no added sulphur.

Chateau de Corcelles

Buyer's Comment: We are finally seeing a resurgence in Beaujolais, a region which has long been viewed as the less serious sibling to Red Burgundy. Many wineries in Beaujolais are now working in a similar manner to the Burgundians and with these developments come wines with structure, intensity and complexity.

Natural and sulphite-free wines have hard core followers and critics with good reason; at their best they are fantastic and unique and their worst, faulty and undrinkable. This Brouilly is an excellent example of natural winemaking done right, packed with cherry, raspberry and ripe black current. The flavours are super intense and the wine is well balanced with fresh acidity and medium body. It also has a bit of that je ne sais quoi that natural wine fanatics bang on about.

Edouard Delaunay

About the Range: Laurent Delaunay, president of Badet Clément, took back control of the Grande Maison, Edouard Delaunay in 2017. The estate was originally owned by his great grandfather and dates back to 1893. Due to the illness of Laurent's father, the estate was sold in 1992 to the Boisset family. This major project is close to Delaunay's heart. He said: "My grandfather used to say that the House of Edouard Delaunay was 'the smallest of the great Houses'".

Over the last two years 1.5M Euros has been invested to return the historic cellars and winery at Château de Charmont to its former glory. "It's fantastic. What I am living now is like a dream," said Laurent Delaunay, describing the opportunity he has had to buy back his family's estate and to once again make fine Burgundian wine under the Edouard Delaunay name.

Laurent Delaunay's mission is to "make Edouard Delaunay a leading Burgundian wine house once more". A producer "focused on excellence and high-end wines mainly from the Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune".

Buyer's Comment: You can't help but to be drawn in by this incredible family story, reviving this 'lost' family estate has clearly been a labour of love for the Delaunay family. The family passion is combined with extensive access to quality grapes and the modern winemaking skills from Christophe Briotet, an internationally experienced head wine maker and recent former cellar master at the Domaine du Lycée Viticole de Beaune.

Lamblin & Fils

About the Range: "Lamblin Fils is one of the oldest Domaine in the Chablis region. The first traces of this family on this terroir date back to 1690.

Les Clos is the largest and most widely known of the seven climats of the Chablis Grand Cru white wine appellation. It covers a single, southwest-facing slope above the town of Chablis itself, and is planted exclusively with the Chardonnay grape variety. Chablis Les Clos wines are generally more powerful and intense than the other Grand Crus, and are often associated with ripe stonefruit, orange peel and honey. With a tendency to be more closed in their youth than those from the other climats, they are famous for their long-term aging potential, showing a balance between power and finesse."

Château Clinet

About the Range: "Château Clinet has a long and prestigious history with traces of vines that go as far back as the 16th Century. The vineyard is mainly planted around the Church of Pomerol, on the famous plateau, known for its deep clay soils and surface of Gunz gravel.

This soil composition, gentle slopes, and high density planting of very old vines, along with the temperate weather and natural water reserves, result in a unique terroir that produces wines of exceptional quality. Château Clinet has always been inspired by actions of the past but, since 2004, current winemaker (and owner), Ronan Laborde, has been engaged in substantial transformations: replanting, developing environmentally-friendly practices, rebuilding the winemaking facilities and reorganising Clinet's distribution. The annual production is only around 4000 cases.

Château Carreyre

About the Range: "This property is located in the town of Soussans in the prestigious Margaux appellation. In 2014 the Domaines FABRE team took over the vineyard management and a huge amount of work has been done in the vineyard: soil drainage, vat capacities adapted to all areas of the vineyard plots.

They operate within 4.5 ha, planted on the north of Margaux Appellation, the soil is gravel hilltop situated on clay and worked in order to promote rooting with no weedkiller used."

Buyer's Comment: This wine comes from a boutique winery established in the great terroir of Margaux. Its elegance, finesse and purity embody the Margaux AOC.

🍷 Fruit-driven and pure, with a mix of mulberry, red currant and damson plum notes, laced with espresso-tinged toast and backed by light savory hints on the finish. The 60% new wood barrels bring complexity.

Auguste Bessac

About the Range: In 1926 August Bessac launched himself into the art of wine making and maturation, and built his wine cellar in the very heart of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. This is where the existing artesian wells contribute, even today, to the quality and the climate of the cellar. August Bessac built one of the biggest wine cellars in the region – which still holds true today!

Nowadays, this cellar carries on the legacy of the know-how and the expertise which Auguste Bessac passed on to the generations succeeding him.

Buyer's Comment: This Côtes du Rhône Rouge uses grapes selected from the Southern Rhone Departments of Vaucluse and Gard, where the soils are made up of calcareous clay. The wine undergoes a traditional vinification with fermentation at a base temperature of 18/19 degrees to preserve the aromas, giving a fresh yet powerful example of a Côtes du Rhône.

🍷 Ruby in colour, with hints of violet. The nose is complex and dominated with red fruit notes that are typical of the Côtes du Rhône. The palate shows good balance between roundness, vivacity and structure. The wine has a lovely finish with silky tannins. Partners beautifully with roast beef, mushrooms, cheese.

Pink Flamingo

About the Range: The ungrafted 'Grenache Gris' vines growing out of the sands in the Camargue, adjacent to the Mediterranean sea, give the Pink Flamingo rosé a unique tasting note of peaches and apricots with an underlying complexity. It's an interesting alternative to Provence, showing a more 'Old World' structure that will please the more discerning palate.

Buyer's Comment: This 600 hectare plot of ungrafted vines grow out of the sand dunes and are phylloxera free, making the Grenache 'Gris de Gris' grapes truly indigenous to the area. This means that the wine produced is the truest reflection of the Grenache grape possible. Grapes are harvested at night-time to ensure maximum freshness and are all 100% organic.

Belle Perle

About the Range: "The name Belle Perle (Beautiful Pearl) is inspired by the tradition of pairing Picpoul with oysters, and this new Picpoul from the village of Pinet is the perfect match - fresh, youthful and fruity with great acid balance!

Buyer's Comment: "The Piquepoul grapes are harvested at night in cool temperatures to prevent oxidation, they are then vinified at a low temperature in stainless steel tanks. The winemaking methods reflect the style of wine required – fresh, youthful, fruity with great acidity.

Enrico Serafino

About the Range: The true identity of this grape is often overshadowed by its most famous area of production, Barolo. But Nebbiolo, grown in the broader area of Langhe is capable of outstanding quality. Nebbiolo is a variety which drinkers may struggle to understand. Its light colour is misleading when you consider its firm tannic structure and high acidity. Nebbiolo Picotener has intense fruit flavours of cherry and plum, offering a ripeness not often found at this price point. With the classic floral notes, minerality and fine spicy notes, you get a lot of bang for your buck.

Enrico Serafino's new Nebbiolo received 92 points from Susan Hulme MW (For Decanter). She noted: "This is Enrico Serafino's exciting rediscovery of an old, almost lost sub-variety of Nebbiolo called Picotener. And what an exciting find!"

Antica Villa

About the Range: Amarone della Valpolicella is an intensely flavored dry red wine made from dried grapes. It is made in the Veneto region of northeastern Italy, and is one of the region's most prestigious red wines. Key to the quality of this Amarone is the meticulous selection of the grapes which starts in September after a long warm summer of ripening. These grapes were handpicked in the vineyards and stored in small crates to be taken to the fruit lofts. For about 3 months the grapes are left to dry and lose about 30% of their weight, while the complex, intense aromas develop.

Leefield Station

About the Range: Leefield Station is a fully operational vineyard farm located in the Waihopai Valley of Marlborough. It is one of the oldest sheep and beef stations in Marlborough, dating back to the 1840's. In 2013 Brent Marris, Marlborough's first locally born and qualified wine maker, purchased the 2,300 ha property with sights set not only for its pastoral farming potential but also to convert a large portion of the land into vineyard.

2017 marked the release of the first Leefield Station wines from this magnificent property, a range that celebrates the history of the iconic station and the future of Marisco Vineyards and the Marris family legacy.

Buyer's Comment: Winemaker Brent Marris has expanded his range beyond the iconic Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Gris, and these Burgundian-style additions bring an extra dimension to his range of great quality wines.

Reign of Terroir

About the Range: Every revolution needs a spark and that spark happened in 2010 when a handful of talented young winemakers got together in the Swartland region of South Africa's Western Cape.

What became the Swartland Revolution was arguably the most influential wine movement since the start of the new millennium, and has subsequently placed the region firmly on the wine map.

The revolution brought focus to non-traditional blends and varieties, proving what Mediterranean varieties could really do in SA. Prior to this Bordeaux blends and Sauvignon Blanc were the wines that stole all of the glory!

Buyer's Comment: You can see the appeal of Swartland for winemakers, the vines are old (often over 100 years) and land is cheap, especially when compared with much swankier Stellenbosch, Elgin and Walker Bay.

The climate is hot and dry, which viticulturists have used to their advantage. The lack of water in the soil leads to lower yields and smaller, more-concentrated fruit.

Swartland is now synonymous with innovation, excitement and passion and we wanted to capture this in a new range of wines. With labels, we threw caution to the wind and Mediterranean varieties were brought to the fore in the red and white blends.

Reign of Terroir Chenin Blanc, Swartland

JDE Code: 38180

RRP: £18.50

🍷 An aromatic wine, with good acidity and elegance surrounding the Chenin's summer fruit salad base. Fresh and flavourful, the silky texture satisfying enough for drinking on its own, but has enough personality to be confidently matched with lightly spiced dishes.

Buyer's Comment: Incredible value can still be found in Swartland, this Chenin comes from bush vines planted in 1987. With old vines you get considerably fewer grapes per vine but each grape is intensely flavoured and concentrated. The vines are partially dry farmed which means they build up a natural resilience important in this harsh, arid climate.

The resulting wine is full and rich on the palate, with a lovely creamy crisp finish. Un-oaked to allow all the fruit intensity to show through.

🍷 Good aromatics from the pinotage's red fruit, a tasty mix of berries and cherries. The palate displays a fresh and fruity succulence of berry fruits with hints of oak and good acidity.

Buyer's Comment: This Pinotage is produced from vines planted in 1987, these old vines are sustainably farmed.

The wine has undergone a period of oak maturation for added complexity under the care of winemaker Ben Jordaan. This is a moreish fruit driven wine with layers of berry fruits and hints of oak and good acidity.

An excellent trio, undertoned with some woody structure on the palate, well balanced wine.

Buyer's Comment: This red blend is made up of Shiraz, Mourvedre, & Grenache noir. Produced from vines averaging over 30 years old. Each component has been vinified separately prior to blending by winemaker Ben Jordaan. This wine displays layers of red and dark berries on the palate, with elegant tannins on the finish.

🍷 "Green richness" is the theme that carries through all Grenache Blanc wines. The Roussanne will burst with green fruit and citrus notes including pear, green apple, mango, lime zest, and white peach. Viognier and Roussanne brings lovely hints of other aromas such as stewed pear and guava and hints of honey undertones, On the palate there is an intense fruit feel sensation, that combination of zesty citrus and tropical flavours leaves a fruit filled and well-balanced bodied wine. Well balanced acidity leaving a nice full complimented body and lingering finish..

Buyer's Comment: Sustainably farmed in what has traditionally been a tough climate, each component is individually fermented and remains on the lees for several months for added complexity prior to being carefully blended.

Vall Llach

About the Range: Celler Vall Llach was founded in the early 90s by Enric Costa and Lluís Llach, in Porrera, one of the nine towns that make up the DOC Priorat in the south of Catalonia.

The winery's first vintage was in 1998 and it reached the market at the end of 2000.

The demanding standards imposed on all the winery's activity and processes are: rigour, quality and the importance of the countryside.

Consistent with this, the cellar has imposed a ceiling on production and growth in order never to lose the personal and thorough supervision exerted over each stage of the process of winemaking.

Buyer's Comment: Focussing on quality over quantity, Celler Vall Llach has firmly embraced a small-is-beautiful ethos of micro-production for its vineyards. It is our privilege to offer you these powerful, balanced and elegant wines which are amongst the best in Priorat.

Vine Roots

About the Range: Vine Roots was originally the personal project of Carlos Rubio, CEO and head winemaker at Bodegas Corral, but it is now the label under which the winery's more experimental wines sit. A quest to capture the purity of classic or indigenous grape varieties from exceptional vineyards in Northern Spain is shining the spotlight on a handful of very special and previously unrecognised vineyard sites in Rioja.

Buyer's Comment: This wine is something a bit left-field from the Rioja region – a 100% Garnacha Blanca made from vines of more than 50 years old with 16 days Batonnage and five months in new French oak. The wine is layered with complexity but underpinned with a fresh grapefruit citrus note. Beautiful.

Virgen de Galir

About the Range: From the Virgen del Galir winery in Galicia, this is a small winery that was founded in 2002, taking advantage of the decomposed schist soils in the valley of the Galir river. 20 hectares (and about the same number of plots!) make up the vineyards, most at around 600m altitude. Maruxa translates to Mary in English, and is the mother of the founder of the winery. Galicia makes some brilliant wines that are often forgotten against the Rioja's and Ribera's of Spain, and these are a great addition to our list.

Gran Volante

About the Range: El Escocés Volante (The Flying Scotsman), Norrel Robertson MW, touched down with his family in Spain in 2003 and released his first wines in 2004. He is currently one of six Masters of Wine living in Spain. He was born and raised in Scotland and, after graduating from Aberdeen University with a MA Honours degree in Politics and International Relations, has worked in the wine industry for over 25 years, starting in sales in the UK before moving on to buying and product development. In the late 1990's Norrel decided to pursue a career in winemaking.

Norrel went on to work vintages across Europe and in Chile. He achieved his Master of Wine in November 2000, winning the Robert Mondavi Award for the best overall theory performance in the exam.

In 2002-2003 he studied Viticulture and Oenology course at Lincoln University in Christchurch, New Zealand, and passed with distinction. In 2003, he moved to Spain as Winemaker for International Wine Services and soon after decided to start making his own wines.

El Escocés Volante currently owns 30 hectares of mainly Old Vine Garnacha around the villages of Villarroja de la Sierra, Torralba and Cervera de la Cañada, (a collection of vineyards ranging from 45 to 110 years old) and some new plantings. Viticulture is sustainable and organic with certification being carried out in the coming years.

Buyer's Comment: A new range crafted by the hugely talented British Master of Wine Norrel Robertson, these wines offer amazing quality for the price and represent the most exciting modern Spanish winemaking.
